Hotel Indigo Vancouver

- The 138-room, eight-story Hotel Indigo Vancouver located along the Columbia River in downtown Vancouver.
- The hotel includes two restaurants including El Gaucho and 13 Coins, and Witness Tree rooftop lounge opening in December 2022, a dedicated subterranean parking garage and nearly 10,000 square feet of meeting and event space.
- The Hotel Indigo Vancouver is adjacent to the 12-story luxury Kirkland Tower Condominiums, an entertainment pier, retail shops and restaurants, all of which are part of a waterfront mixed-use development.
- The hotel is owned by Kirkland Development LLC, and is approximately seven miles from Portland, Oregon, and 11 miles from the Portland International Airport (PDX).

The Waterfront Vancouver Project

Vancouver's historic waterfront began its transformation in 2015 and includes a $35 million waterfront park as well as restaurants, shops, housing and a hotel as it reconnects 35 acres along the Columbia River to the city's historic core. The project will draw from 2.5 million nearby residents and is within walking distance to the Vancouver Convention Center.

- The dramatic cable stay pier provides a scenic waterfront entranceway along with parks, fountains and open spaces.
- Several thousand new residential units including 40 luxury condominiums at Kirkland Tower
- More than 1.25 million square feet of Class A creative office space,
- Hotel Indigo – a 138-room boutique hotel with featuring El Gaucho, as well as lobby and rooftop bars and 3,300 square feet of meeting and event space all served by El Gaucho.

- A variety of restaurants including Revelers Club properties, El Gaucho Vancouver and Witness Tree rooftop lounge opening in December 2022
- Specialty retail shops including Pepper Bridge and Maryhill Winery tasting rooms

About Revelers Club and Fire & Vine Hospitality
